MEDITATIONS

"The best course to prevent falling into the pit is to keep at the greatest distance from it; he who will be so bold as to attempt to dance upon the brink of the pit, may find by woeful experience that it is a righteous thing with God that he should fall into the pit."

~ Thomas Brooks

Man Frail, God Eternal. Ps. 90. 1-5

O God, our Help in ages past, Our Hope for years to come, Our Shelter from the stormy blast, And our eternal Home.

Under the shadow of thy throne Thy saints have dwelt secure; Sufficient is thine arm alone, And our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood, Or earth received her frame – From everlasting thou art God, To endless years the same.

[Thy word commands our flesh to dust, "Return, ye sons of men"; All nations rose from earth at first, And turn to earth again.]

A thousand ages in thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night,
Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our Help in ages past, Our Hope for years to come, Be thou our Guard while life shall last, And our eternal Home.

~I. Watts
