Call Response: Candidate Slingerland declined our call and has accepted a call to the Corsica, SD congregation. May the Lord bless him and his labors.

Remember in Prayer:

- Our Nation with a positive decision regarding Roe vs. Wade. There is a great need for education and further positive decisions to be made in our nation. (Jeremiah 1:5 Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.
- Our widows, widowers and lonely ones, the unborn, prodigal sons and daughters, those undergoing treatments, and all those with hidden crosses. ("He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer." Psalms 102:17)

Meditation:

It is written, "Fear not, I am with thee." It is written again 'Blessed is the man who feareth always.' There is perfect harmony in those seemingly different texts. May the wisdom that cometh from above, teach you and me to keep them both united in our view. If the Lord be with us, we have no cause to fear. His eye upon us, His arm over us, His ear open to our prayer, His grace sufficient, His promise unchangeable. Under His protection, though the path of duty should lie through fire and water, we may cheerfully and confidently pursue it. On the other hand, our hearts are so deceitful, fallible, and frail; our spiritual enemies so subtle, watchful, and powerful; and they derive so many advantages from the occasions of every day, in which we are unavoidably and unexpectedly concerned; there is so much combustible within, and so many temptations arising from without, capable of setting all in a flame; that we cannot be too jealous of ourselves and our circumstances. When we can say, in the psalmist's spirit, Hold thou me up, we may warrantably draw his conclusion, and I shall be safe; but the moment we lean to our own understanding we are in imminent danger of falling.

The enemy who wars against our souls, is a consummate master in his way, fertile in stratagems and equally skillful in carrying on his assaults by sap or by storm. He studies us, if I may say so, all around, to discover our weak sides; and he is very Proteus for changing his appearances, and can appear as a sly serpent, a roaring lion, or an angel of light, as best suits his purpose. It is a great mercy to be in some measure acquainted with his devices and aware of them. They who wait humbly on the Lord, and consult carefully at His word and throne of grace, are made wiser than the enemy and enabled to escape and withstand his wiles.
